COURSE DESCRIPTION

I. COURSE PURPOSE

This 5 day workshop is designed to develop fair housing leadership skills and a comprehensive and cutting edge approach for challenging residential segregation and promoting housing integration. The workshop is about the practices leaders use to foster diversity; promote fair housing; reduce housing discrimination; preserve dignity and human rights; and refuse to tolerate non-compliance. In essence it is about leadership in fair housing and the commitment to justice of fighting discriminatory practices

Participants will learn and translate the five practices of exemplary leaders: Model the Way, Inspire a Shared Vision, Challenge the Process, Enable Others to Act, and Encourage the Heart to relate to fair housing. Each practice will be presented in a module.

- Model the Ways that will clarify fair housing practices and set the example by aligning action plans.
- Inspire a Shared Vision will show how to enlist others to build fair housing coalitions to achieve shared aspirations.
- Challenge the Process involves the ability to search for opportunities to combat discrimination in housing.
- Enable Others to Act involves the ability to foster collaboration and lead fair housing staffs toward meeting the organization's vision, mission and goals.
- Encourage the Heart involves recognizing contributions and celebrating the values and victories in fair housing.
